Another secret of the trust was laid bare, namely, that the enormous blocks of Steel stock that have been sold the last few months came from none other than President Schwab, who has been converting his stocks into cash.

It is said that he dislikes the strenuous life the presidency of the trust entailed, and that he plans to live the rest of his days in ease and luxury. The attempt made on his life at 71 Broadway a last year ago is also said to have made him and willing to quit the high office.

A fine specimen of the buil is to be credited to Sir Thomas Myles, an eminant Irish surgeon, and at ex-president of the College of Surgeons in Ireland. He made it in the course of a speech delivered at the meeting of the Solicitors' Apprentices' Debating Society in Dublin. The subject of the address was "Cecil Rhodes." Sir Thomas paid a high tribute to the force of character, the spirit of personal independence, and the indomitable courage of Englishmen. He pictured the British Empire as having been in danger at the time of the late war, and asked with emphasis, "Was England to stand with her arms folded"

Suggestions are being made that the stock of Colcrado Fuel and Iron is selling at too low a price, and if there were any thing in the reports made public some time ago as to the business of that company, these suggestions are worthy of consideration. In the recent break the stock sold at 73%, and when it was selling at 110 John W. Gates predicted it would sell at 150. Since that time, or thereabouts, Mr. Gates disposed of his holdings. At least he does not now appear as a factor in its management.

The congestion of traffic on trunk lines is unprecedented, and consignees are much exercised over the delay in receiving their goods. Perhaps the greatest congestion was at Pittsburg on the Pennsylvania, but to a certain extent that clog in transportation was removed last Sunday, when hundreds of men were pressed into service to aid in getting cars out of the yards. On the St. Paul Road the congestion is aimost as great, and the tonnage carried is greater than ever before. There is a car shortage, and locomotives cannot be procured to move even the cars that are ready to be handled. This condition of affairs does not bear out the prediction of Mr. Hill and others that the tide of prosperity has changed.
